White Dove Crow

White Dove Crow is a Cree Medicine Woman from the Moose Clan. She embraces the ancient teachings of her elders which she shares back in the traditional way of quietly walking the medicine walk.

She invites others to share her vision of Fire Medicine, and guides those pure of heart in the ancient ways of the sacred pipe, sweat lodge, high ceremony and horsemanship.

She delivers teachings of the Nature of Creator's Creations, facilitates Women's retreats, and presents native cultural teaching within educational communities.

White Dove Crow will be available for private consultations, Saturday following class and Sunday a.m. She is the guest speaker at Universal Unity of Spirit's 1:30 p.m. service May 25. . ."Pure Intention, Commitment & Gratitude"
